The three members of the school board have agreed to be present at the meeting and to present an accounting of funds received, and expenditures of the past year, on which the 60 per cent increase is based.

The election at which the increase will be voted upon will be held the following Saturday, March 26, in the school from 12 noon to 7:00 p. m., and the committee which is sponsoring the meeting is sincerely desirous of having all parents, taxpayers and other interested persons present at the meeting to obtain necessary information upon which to base a vote on the proposed increase in taxes.

McMillen Will Wrestle Cyclone Anaya Saturday At Waukegan Hi School

An International flavor to the all star mat show featuring Walter Palmer and Jim McMillen, of Antioch, will be a feature of the card Saturday night, March 19, in the Waukegan High school gym.

The International flavor comes from the fact that Cyclone Anaya, sensational South American, will be on the show meeting turbulent Rudy Kay. In the Australian Tag team match, the Japanese duo of Duke Keomuka and Young Shiranuhi bring in the Oriental flavor. They clash with Leon Kirilenko, of Russia and Trinidad Vega of Mexico. This bout is to be a two out of three fall verdict with a sixty minute time limit.

The Palmer-McMillen windup, with a two out of three fall verdict and a sixty minute time limit, is one of the big 'naturals' of the year. McMillen is one of the greatest athletes that Illinois has ever produced, Jim was starring in the athletic field even before he went to the University of Illinois. However, at the U. of I. he became a Big Ten winner in wrestling and a great football player on the college gridiron. He later went into professional football with the Chicago Bears.

His greatest wrestling triumphs were scored after his football days were over. Jim filled the Chicago Stadium many times in the days of Jim Londos, Ed "Strangler" Lewis and Kola Kwariani. This seems years ago, but the big well built McMillen is just in his prime as far as his wrestling days are concerned.

Walter Palmer, like McMillen, has climbed the Illinois ladder of sports from Park District Championship to the number one position in pro wrestling. His spinning leg hold has endangered his foes and will be McMillen's gravest menace.

Cyclone Anaya, who has recently returned from his native land, will try cobra twist on Rudy Kay. Anaya is perfectly built and one of the most powerful wrestlers in action today. Kay is a ringbuster, who is sure to create havoc in his match with Anaya.

The clever tag team of Young Shiranuhi and Duke Keomuka have many wily Oriental grips to use on the rugged and excitable Kirilenko and the tough Vega. Kirilenko his partner are undefeated as a Tag team duo, but they will have to stand a lot of pounding and unruly methods in their match with the Japs. Both Shiranuhi and Keomuka are experts in jiu jitsu, judo and the Sumo type of wrestling.

Kirilenko and Vega state they have plans to nullify this type of wrestling. Popular prices will prevail for the all star International card.

Decline in Milk Price Foreseen by Manager of Pure Milk Association

Prediction that Lake county dairymen will receive an average of a dollar less on the hundredweight this year than last year, or about $3.60 per cwt. was made by A. T. Lauterbach, general manager of the Pure Milk association in the annual meeting in Chicago Saturday.

Lauterbach, who is returning to his work after a year's leave of absence on account of illness, said he estimated the prices of last year with reasonable accuracy.

The Pure Milk association re-elected Wilbur J. Swayer of Gurnee as its president and director.

Swayer, in his opening address Saturday, said that there had been a 3 per cent increase in milk consumption and that the association gained 556 members in 1948. The sales of the association were increased by 4,115,047 pounds over 1947, according to J. F. Knox, Waukegan, director of sales.

W. E. Winn, treasurer, of Richmond, reported that the net worth of PMA is $2,229,891.45, a net gain of $164,901.93 in 1948.

Dr. J. O. Christianson of the University of Minnesota gave the principal address, telling the dairymen there must be a trend away from calling on the government to cure all the woes of the country and a trend back to individual enterprise.

Nearly 100 dairymen from Lake county attended the meeting.

The New Slavery

Little by little the rights of the individual in this country are being sacrificed to the state. The trend has been cloaked in an artificial prosperity that in too many instances has blinded even business management. W. C. Mullendore, President of the Southern California Edison Company, warns against this "well established theory in the United States that business can be made good by holding the right thought and by ignoring facts which might be considered danger signals." In a letter to his stockholders he speaks frankly: "Our plans and program for 1949 call for continued expansion . . . Again, however, let us beware of the conclusion that either our company or business in general in the U. S. A., is enjoying a sound prosperity. Because current feverish activity and the resulting increase in the volume of dollars in circulation are so frequently referred to as prosperity, we need to remind ourselves that a considerable part of this increase in business activity has been forced by . . . debilitating expenditures and fiscal policies of government."

"Coincidental with these dangerous monetary policies, the majority of our people have been turning away from self-reliance, and bartering our liberty and our free institutions for government aid and guardianship . . . More and more, our government (in the guise of subsidies, social security, socialized housing and other governmental aids, domestic and foreign) is being used to enable some of our people to 'do as they please with other men, and the product of other men's labor.' This is the loss of liberty—the new slavery which threatens all America today."

America was settled by immigrants fleeing from nations which confiscatory taxation and political persecution made life unbearable. The fact that government is becoming the dominant factor in our lives should be warning enough of the peril we face.

The Machine and the Miner

In 1947, there were 244,000 fewer coal miners than in 1920. But coal production was 61,000,000 tons greater, for an all-time record of 631,000,000 tons.

Superficially, this might indicate that improved mining processes have caused an extremely serious labor displacement problem. But in 1947 there was practically no unemployment. Men who would have worked in the mines in a less efficient day were profitably employed in other enterprise. And the hundreds of thousands of miners who remained had better pay and better conditions than ever before.

The point is that the surest road to a permanently higher standard of living for the greatest number of people, including labor, lies in higher manhour productivity—whether that be achieved by technological progress, or greater individual application. The American coal miner, working on underground seams, averages several times the daily output of his British equivalent. He also has a more favorable safety record. The labor cost per ton is substantially less in the American mines. As a result, the American miner receives two to three times as much pay.

Mechanization of mining is largely responsible for this. Not over three per cent of our coal production is hand-cut, and only two per cent is animal-hauled. We have seen the miners' total earnings, take-home pay, and standard of living steadily rise. This could have been possible only in an industry where good business management has concentrated on giving labor better tools.

High-Priced "Security"

It seems to be a political axiom that governmental efforts in the ever-expanding field of "social security" invariably cost far more than the estimates.

England, like many another country, has lately provided evidence of this. The Labor government was recently forced to ask the House of Commons for a very large appropriation to make up deficits for the current fiscal year. It appeared that one major reason for this was the cost of the new universal free medical service plan. The deficit in that case alone, for a nine months' period, was nearly 53,000,000 pounds, which is well over $200,000,000 at the official rate of exchange.

The Minister of Health explained the inadequacy of original estimates by saying that the public had made much greater use of the service than was expected. This bears out the experience with socialized medicine in other nations. A large percentage of the people seem to work on the theory that they might as well get what is coming to them, whether there is any real need for it or not. So even the most honestly and carefully prepared estimates of cost prove sadly wrong—and, as a corollary, doctors find themselves so overburdened with patients and administrative duties that they are unable to give the proper kind of attention where it is actually needed.

In the United States, many experts are convinced that government estimates of the cost of our proposed compulsory health insurance bill are nowhere near high enough. What is happening elsewhere certainly bears out that opinion.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Kansas—you sisters and brothers elsewhere, take heed. Out there in the old Sunflower state—in that land of wheat, rolling vistas, horse sense, and grand people—there is a plan on foot to get its citizens back to 100 per cent self reliance and self-respect. They are going to try to do something about it before Kansas turns out to be just another softie where on the flimsiest excuse, everybody can sit in the shade and ring up the Uplift Agent or however he is listed in the phone book, and ask the guy to send out the groceries, or the dole, or the pension—and right away.

Where is the old rugged American eagerness to take off its coat and feed and care for its household? It is slipping, says Kansas. So out there, in the legislature, is a proposed bill requiring every grown and able-bodied Jay-hawker son and daughter to come to the aid of their parents when and if their mom or their pop should need help. Now, would say Confucius, "Kansas is on the front burner."

In every State, as on the rollicksome Potomac, the contest is on—who can think up the most novel way to spend or give away the most, the quickest. But most people are agin the cuckoo ideas—but do nothing about it, tell your Governor—tell everybody, down to the Mayor. Tell 'em about Kansas.

Yours with the low-down,
 JOE SERRA

LAKE VILLA

The Lake Villa grade school basketball tournament had the last games of the season at the school gym last Thursday evening, when they played Winthrop Harbor and won by a score of 18 to 36, and on Saturday night played Hebron and lost by a score of 47 to 48.

New Plymouth on Display

Plymouth's new special deluxe is featured above. Brilliant new styling is combined with outstanding riding comfort, increased roominess, and sweeping mechanical improvements in the new line of Plymouth automobiles.

Completely redesigned, the new Plymouth has a longer wheelbase for a better ride and more road stability, but less front and rear overhang for easier parking and garaging. While the silhouette has been lowered and the width decreased, there is more head and leg room and seats are wider. Typical of Plymouth's many refinements is the ignition-starter combination, with which a turn of the key starts the engine.

The new Plymouths are sleek in appearance. New rear-end styling provides a graceful balance with the horizontal grille lines which emphasize the broadness of the front. Fenders which blend perfectly into body lines are nevertheless separate and detachable, thus avoiding sheet metal panels so costly to repair or replace.

The new Plymouth line includes nine distinct automobiles. Special deluxe and deluxe types are on a 118-inch wheelbase, one inch longer than last year's. Special deluxe models are: four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible club coupe and station wagon. In the deluxe group are the four-door sedan and the club coupe. In addition, Plymouth will build three deluxe models on a brand new 111-inch wheelbase, a two-door sedan, a three-passenger coupe, and a new body type, the Suburban.

The 97-horsepower engine has improved performance and efficiency with a new design cylinder head which increases compression ratio to 7 to 1. A new chrome plated compression piston ring reduces cylinder wear and provides greater protection during the break-in period. There are improved oil rings for greater oil economy, while a newly-designed intake manifold induces quicker, smoother engine warm-up and produces faster throttle response.

Body styling which produces greater passenger room without excessive bulk also increases visibility. V-type windshields have 37 percent more area and provide excellent vision without distortion. Windshield wipers clear 61.5 percent greater area and the rear window is 35.4 percent larger.

Donald Bratrude Takes Patricia Watts as Bride

Miss Patricia Mae Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Watts, Chicago, exchanged vows with Donald Bratrude, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Bratrude, Antioch, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at a candle light service in the Morgan Park Presbyterian church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta princess style dress with a bustle back and a long train falling from the bustle. She wore a finger tip veil, and carried a bouquet of white Easter lilies.

Miss Arlyth Rogers, Oak Park, and Miss Cora Elsworth, Chicago, classmates of both the bride and bridegroom at Knox college, served as bridesmaids. They wore pale blue taffeta gowns with bustle backs and blue dutch caps and carried parma violets.

The bride's mother wore a pearl grey floor length dress and white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore pink gardenias with her beige floor length dress.

Will Frey, Cleveland, O., a classmate of the bridegroom at the University of Wisconsin, and Presley Bratrude, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best men. The ushers were Ray Watts, brother of the bride, John Palmer and Kenneth Krueger, Antioch.

The soloist sang "Because" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held at the Nantucket, Western ave., Chicago.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bratrude are graduates of Knox college, Galesburg, and for the past year the bride has been an air stewardess with United Airlines. Mr. Bratrude is taking post-graduate work in psychology at the University of Wisconsin.

They are making their home in Madison, Wis.

Mrs. John Stiehr Heads Lake County Home Bureau Staff

Mrs. John Stiehr will head the Lake County Home Bureau during the ensuing year as the result of the election held on March 8 at the Moraine hotel in Highland Park.

Her staff includes Mrs. Douglas Crooks, vice president; Mrs. Lester Osmond, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Flagg, treasurer; Mesdames Walter Sage, Robert Murrie, Marshall Kimball, William Chandler, William Bauer, and Delbert Hook.

The new board members were installed by Miss Anna Searl, assistant state leader, University of Illinois, Home Economics Extension. Miss Searl, speaker of the morning, enthusiastically told her audience how much they were getting as students of the University of Illinois and how much they could contribute by passing on the information they learned to other members of the community. She made everyone present feel they were happy to be a part of this county, state, national, and international organization of homemakers.

After a delicious luncheon in the main dining room of the hotel, the women attended the afternoon session. The program started with a fine Style Show given by Marie Anne's Dress shop. The Home Bureau and 4-H club members who acted as models did justice to the attractive costumes displayed by Mrs. Marion Hunt.

The afternoon address on "Glamour for the Asking" really made every woman sit up in her seat to hear every word given by Miss Celeste Carlyle, Chicago stylist. She said, "We can't all have perfect figures and faces, but we must learn to like ourselves as we are. Look for your good features and play them up. This will make you feel comfortable. A large woman can be stunning and regal and dignified. Learn the colors and lines that are good for you and carry them out in your costumes as well as in your home. Concentrate on the entire picture you make—the portrait look. Have a theme that brings everything together and plan to make all of your appearances attractive. Plan attractive costumes to wear at home, in the kitchen, in the garden, and when you go to bed at night. Always try to be beautiful. Buy clothes to suit the purpose. Get functional clothes for work clothes." She suggested getting one good suit and one dress each season and then wear it out while it is new and in style.

SEE THE New, Improved 1949 PLYMOUTH

Plymouth's new special deluxe four-door sedan (above). Throughout the new Plymouth line beautifully streamlined bodies are lower and narrower, seats are wider and headroom greater. At the same time overall exterior dimensions are reduced, but wheelbase has been lengthened to 118 inches and glass area is increased. Horsepower is raised to 97. Although fenders flow gracefully into the body they are detachable for ease in repair.

New Plymouth Features Beauty, Performance, Safety and Comfort

Brilliant new styling is combined with outstanding riding comfort, increased roominess, and sweeping mechanical improvements in the new line of Plymouth automobiles.

Completely redesigned, the new Plymouth has a longer wheelbase for a better ride and more road stability, but less front and rear overhang for easier parking and garaging. While the silhouette has been lowered and the width decreased, there is more head and leg room and seats are wider. Typical of Plymouth's many refinements is the ignition-starter combination, with which a turn of the key starts the engine.

The new Plymouths are sleek in appearance. New rear-end styling provides a graceful balance with the horizontal grille lines which emphasize the broadness of the front. Fenders which blend perfectly into body lines are nevertheless separate and detachable, thus avoiding sheet metal panels so costly to repair or replace.

The new Plymouth line includes nine distinct automobiles. Special deluxe and deluxe types are on a 118-inch wheelbase, one inch longer than last year's. Special deluxe models are: four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible club coupe and station wagon. In the deluxe group are the four-door sedan and the club coupe. In addition, Plymouth will build three deluxe models on a brand new 111-inch wheelbase, a two-door sedan, a three-passenger coupe, and a new body type, the Suburban.

The 97-horsepower engine has improved performance and efficiency with a new design cylinder head which increases compression ratio to 7 to 1. A new chrome plated compression piston ring reduces cylinder wear and provides greater protection during the break-in period. There are improved oil rings for greater oil economy, while a newly-designed intake manifold induces quicker, smoother engine warm-up and produces faster throttle response.

Body styling which produces greater passenger room without excessive bulk also increases visibility. V-type windshields have 37 percent more area and provide excellent vision without distortion. Windshield wipers clear 61.5 percent greater area and the rear window is 35.4 percent larger.
